

IRELAND

TULSK

THE BEST OF IRISH MUSIC !

Authenticity and virtuosity best describe TULSK.

This trio from the west- central region of Ireland offers a unique blend of traditional tunes and more contemporary pieces.

Capable of setting the stage on fire or moving you to tears, Peter, Declan, and Sean are among the very best Irish musicians.

Attending a TULSK concert is like touching the roots of the Irish soul...

THE ARTISTS

PETER MOLLOY

In Peter's family, talent is passed down from father to son, as his father is none other than Matt Molloy, the legendary flute player of The Chieftains, a true national icon in Ireland!

A worthy heir to his father's legacy, Peter made his stage debut in the family pub, "Molloy's," in Westport, a veritable pilgrimage site for folk music lovers from around the world. Equally at home in sessions and concerts, Peter has also played with The Chieftains and Lunasa, and is undoubtedly one of Ireland's finest flute players, magnificently perpetuating the Connacht flute tradition.

DECLAN ASKIN

A renowned singer, guitarist, and composer, Declan lives in Westport but hails from Donegal in the northwest of Ireland. He regularly works as a composer for film and television and wrote a celebrated musical about the life of Saint Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland. He was also a member of the famous bands Céide and Coda.

He is a key figure in the Mayo's cultural scene.

In addition to his incredibly effective guitar playing, Declan also possesses an amazing, warm, and deep voice that transports you to the heart of the Irish landscape...

SEAN REGAN

Sean is one of Ireland's most renowned violinists. In his 30+ year career, he has played and recorded with numerous internationally acclaimed groups and artists, including Sharon Shannon, Bruce Springsteen, Sinéad O'Connor, Paul Brady, and Finbar Furey.

His sensitivity, versatility, and unique sound bridge the gap between traditional music and contemporary sounds, making him a highly sought-after musician for studio recordings.
